Sometimes we hear people say that Christianity is all fine and good, but people need to be careful not to allow themselves to go overboard about it. It's almost as though Christianity were like salt: it should be used sparingly. Otherwise, a follower of Jesus might become a fanatic, and we certainly don't want to be called a fanatic! Recently, we heard the eight Beatitudes, the opening section of Jesus' sermon on the Mount. Last Sunday, we heard Jesus describe his disciples as the salt of the earth and a light set on a lamp stand. In today's Gospel, Jesus uses even more concrete language.

This is where people are often tempted to soften Jesus' message to avoid radical changes in their lives. Jesus is either at the core of who we are, or in fact, He really touches nothing. We must live in such a way that our life would not make sense if God did not exist.

Prayer for Priests

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, look down with love upon Thy priests. Fill them with burning zeal for the conversion of sinners. Keep them within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips purpled with Thy precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious priesthood. Let Thy holy love protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister on earth be one day their joy and consolation in heaven. Amen.
