Permit not that I should ever be separated from You. Amen.

Reflection - 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time...

Jesus will not come to us only at the end of time. He will come to us at any hour and on any day. He may come as a stranger in need or a friend in pain. He may come into our hearts at a significant time or when we least expect it. It may not seem glorious in the least, but Jesus comes in ways great and small every day.

Jesus comes to us in this hour on this day in the Eucharist. In the simple gifts of bread and wine, which are made holy in imitation of that first Eucharist 20 centuries ago. He is present in a special way every time we celebrate Mass. Let us receive Him in the Eucharist, conscious of his presence within us—and within our neighbor—as we live this day made holy in His Coming.

Oh, Jesus, Eternal Father, look down with love upon Thy priests. Fill them with burning zeal for the conversion of sinners. Keep them within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their purple lips with Thy Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly thier hearts sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious Priesthood. Let Thy holy love protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister on earth be one day their joy and consolation in heaven. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

*St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
