Reflection for the 11th Sunday of Ordinary Time...

It is just a coincidence that we hear today's Gospel a week after celebrating the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, but in both Gospel passages Jesus speaks of grain that can be baked into bread.

Today we hear Jesus compare the Kingdom of God to grains of wheat grown in fertile soil. Last week we heard Jesus take the fruit of the fields of wheat and declare, "This is My Body." Neither the Kingdom of God nor the Body of Christ just miraculously appear, sent down from heaven. They are fruits of the earth, of human labor. Stalks of wheat grow from the soil, the grain is harvested by laborers and made into bread by bakers. The Kingdom of God is built up by many hands.

Jesus was born of Mary, the fruit of her womb.

THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

Wednesday— Continuation of our weekly Video "I am a child of God."

Thursday—Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 8:30am-6pm.

Prayer for Hurricane Season.

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness. You are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

Prayer for Priests... Oh, Jesus, Eternal Father, look down with love upon Thy priests. Fill them with burning zeal for the conversion of sinners. Keep them within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their purple lips with Thy Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious Priesthood. Let Thy holy love protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister on earth be one day their joy and consolation in heaven. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits +who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Weekly Wind Up... "I am a Child of God,"

Mrs. Judy spoke this week about the Sanctuary and the altar. The altar is a very holy table where the bread and wine is changed to the Body and Blood of Christ during the Masses. The sanctuary is the area immediately around the altar. Last week, Mrs. Judy spoke about the tabernacle; it too, is in the sanctuary.

Prayer of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You were already there, I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You. Permit not that I should ever be separated from You. Amen.

Pray for the Unborn.

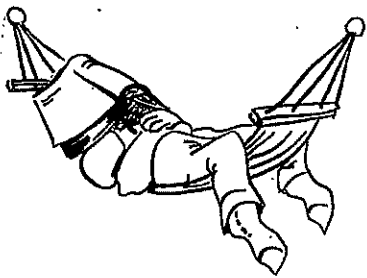

A SUMMER BLESSING

May our loving God
watch over you
and keep alive
in your heart
all that you have learned this year.

Keep your mind on God.
Remember to pray often
and to celebrate your faith,
at home with your family,
and at Mass
with your faith family.

Keep your faith in God.
Let all the joys of summer
remind you
of God's goodness.
Never forget that God
is always with you,
no matter what.

May the God of all creation,
who comes to us in Jesus,
and lives among us
in the Holy Spirit,
keep you safe, happy, and holy
this summer and always.
