Weekly Wind Up... "I am A Child of God."

Mrs. Judy spoke about the Crucifix. A crucifix is a cross with the body of Christ nailed to it. The crucifix reminds us that Jesus died to save the world.

This is the last video for now. Thank you, Mrs. Judy, for your dedication to our children. We appreciate you!!

Reflection for the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time...

Today's Gospel passage two pictures of tremendous hope and faith. The woman had suffered from hemorrhages for twelve years, was treated by numerous doctors, had spent all the money she had, and was now worse than ever. Incredibly, she still retained the hope that she would be cured. Her faith in this Man she had heard about was so strong that she believed she just needed to touch his cloak to be healed.

Jairus was told that his daughter died while he had followed the crowd to see Jesus. In fact, he heard the people at his home weeping and wailing. Still, he held out hope, believing in this Man with the reputation for healing. Their faith gave them hope and their hope drove their faith.

Prayer for Priests... Oh, Jesus, Eternal Father, look down with love upon Thy priests. Fill them with burning zeal for the conversion of sinners. Keep them within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart. Keep unstained their anointed hands which daily touch Thy Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their purple lips with Thy Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthly their hearts sealed with the sublime marks of Thy glorious Priesthood. Let Thy holy love protect them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit, and may the souls to whom they minister on earth be one day their joy and consolation in heaven. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits +who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Hurricane Season.

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness. You are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

THE YEAR of ST. JOSEPH

WHAT IS A PLENARY INDULGENCE?

A plenary indulgence is a complete release from the temporary punishments due for sins already forgiven (as far as their guilt is concerned). "...[T]he faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses an applies with authority the treasury of the satisfaction of Christ and the saints" CCC 1471. If one does not satisfy all the condition for gaining the indulgence, the indulgence becomes partial, removing only part of the temporal punishment due for sins already forgiven. A plenary indulgence may be gained once daily for oneself or for a soul in purgatory.

WHAT IS AN INDULGENCE?

"Every sin has consequences. It disrupts our communion with God and the Church, weakens our ability to resist temptation, hurts others. The necessity of healing these consequences, once the sin itself has been forgiven is temporal punishment. Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, and other works of charity can take away or diminish this temporal punishment. Because of the fullness of redemption obtained by Christ, the Church attaches to certain prayers and actions as indulgence or pardon, that is the full or partial remission of temporal punishment due to sin. Christ, acting through the Church, brings about the healing of the consequences of sin when an individual uses such a prayer or engages in such an action." (US Catholic Catechism for Adults, pg. 244)

WHAT IS MEANT BY THE CHURCH'S TREASURY OF GRACE?

The Church's treasury which contains the inestimable merits of Christ, Mary, the martyrs and saints, and holy souls still living. Among the communion of saints is an enduring link of charity manifesting an abundance exchange of goods. In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others, well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others. By attaching indulgences to certain acts, the Church makes available in a greater way the mercy of God.

While granting these indulgences through her treasury, Holy Mother Church does not want simply to come to the aid of her children, but to spur them to works of devotion, penance and charity. She calls all her children to deep conversion by detachment from sin and reception of Confession in order to be open to gain the indulgence.

While granting these indulgences through her treasury, Holy Mother Church does not want simply to come to the aid of her children, but to spur them to works of devotion, penance and charity. She calls all her children to deep conversion by detachment from sin and reception of Confession in order to be open to gain the indulgence.

WHAT ARE THE ORDINARY CONDITIONS FOR GAINING A PLENARY INDULGENCE?

1. One must be baptized and in the state of grace.
2. One must have the general intention of gaining the indulgence.
3. One must receive Holy Communion, properly on the day of the completion of the indulgenced act, however within 20 days of the indulgenced act suffices—either before or after (Holy Communion must be received once for every plenary indulgence).
4. One must worthily celebrate the Sacrament of Confession either in the days prior to performing the indulgenced act or immediately following it (within 20 days is allowed but preferably on or close to the indulgenced act). One may receive several plenary indulgences on the same Confession.
5. One must manifest his communion with the Church by praying for the intentions of the Pope. Praying an "Our Father" and "Hail Mary" for the intentions suffices, but other suitable prayers could be substituted.
6. One must have an interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, mortal and venial.
7. One must perform the indulgenced work.

The above conditions apply to all plenary indulgences, including the Year of St. Joseph Indulgences.

EXPLANATION OF DETACHMENT FROM SIN

Gaining a plenary indulgence requires a disposition of mind and heart which totally excludes all attachment to sin, both mortal and venial. This means that I am diligently trying to become aware of sin in my life and that there is no sin that I am aware of that I am not wholeheartedly trying to uproot in my life. When these conditions or dispositions are not adequately present the indulgence becomes partial.

FOR THE ELDERLY, CONFINED, AND SICK

They may gain the indulgence by:

- Living with faith and joyful hope this moment of trial
- Receiving Holy Communion or attending Mass and community prayer, even through various means of communication, i.e. TV, radio, Internet, etc.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

BLESSED Joseph, husband of Mary, be with us this day. Thou protected and cherished the Virgin, loving the Child Jesus as thy son, thou rescued Him from danger of death. Defend the Church, the Household of God, purchased by the Blood of Christ.

Guardian of the Holy Family, be with us in our trials. May thy prayers obtain for us the strength to flee from error and wrestle with the powers of corruption so that in life we may grow in holiness and in death rejoice in the crown of victory. Amen
