Reflection for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time...

God can be found in relationships, in the kind and selfless love that we express with those with whom we are closest. It is found in relationships between husband and wife, between parent and child, between close friends. When we sacrifice our own needs and desires for the needs and desires of another, we mirror Jesus' mission to us. Like Jesus lowering himself to wash his disciples' feet at the Last Supper, we marry the divine and the human when we lower our own needs below the needs of those we love.

Human nature is imperfect, and so are human relationships. May our awareness that we all stand in need of God's love and care make us sensitive to others needs.

Prayer of St. Therese of the Child Jesus for Priests

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests; for your unfaithful and tepid priests; for your priests laboring at home or abroad; for your tempted priests; for your young priests; for your lonely and desolate priests; for your dying priests; for the souls of your priests in purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me; the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood; the priests who taught and instructed me.

Oh Jesus, keep them close to your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in the day of battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world, seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

October 3—Respect Life Sunday...

Prayer for Hurricane Season.

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness. You are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.

On October 7, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Rosary in honor of the Blessed Mother, October was also the month in which Mary appeared to shepherd children in Fatima.

The Rosary is an invitation to experience the grace of Mary's spiritual motherhood as she leads us to her Son, Jesus. In 2002, St. John Paul II called the Rosary his favorite prayer, and added a new set of five reflections called the Luminous mysteries. They join the Joyful, Sorrowful, and Glorious mysteries.
