Reflection for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus tell us that those who exalt themselves will be humbled and those who humble themselves will be exalted. Our presence here testifies that we are humbled before God, acknowledging that ultimately we are dependent upon God for all that we have and all that we achieve.

God exalts the remorseful sinner who humbly asks for God's mercy. And as we listen to God's Word, we should be aware of our sinfulness and needfulness.

PRAY FOR OUR PRIESTS

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus, through the intercession of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, imbue all priests with His grace, strengthen their hearts, and renew in them in their vocation to image Christ, Head and Shepherd, Servant and Spouse. Amen.

Prayer for Hurricane Season.

O God, our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former calmness. You are still the Master of land and sea. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies and protect us from future storms. Amen.
